

Dear Sir or Madam,

I work for Fayard, a French publisher, and I'm writing this email because we're going to publish in October a book entitled Quand les Indiens parlaient latin, by Serge Gruzinski.

The author would very much like to illustrate the book with a picture from the Códice Tlatelolco housed at the Biblioteca Nacional de Antropología e Historia, entitled Lamina 8 del Códice Tlatelolco (see picture attached, MID : 77_20140827-134500:310834, URL : <https://mediateca.inah.gob.mx/repositorio/islandora/object/fotografia%3A281370>

I.O. En el reverso: "CIX - 34". Nota: En la lámina 8 del código Tlatelolco se muestra la ceremonia de juramento y reconocimiento a Felipe II en 1557. Arriba en primer plano se ven autoridades civiles y religiosas; en el segundo, las autoridades virreinales: el virrey Luis de Vela

Would we be allowed to use this image in the book, knowing that we would need paper and digital rights worldwide in French language? Would you be able to send us a high-resolution file?

Please don't hesitate to ask if you need more information.

Best regards
