Dear Madam, dear Sir,

I am a French editor and I am presently working on the iconography of a book devoted to the history of feminism in the world to be published in 2024 by Editions Textuel (Paris). The book, edited by Yannick Ripa and Françoise Thébaud, will include more than one hundred notes, each dealing with a movement or a significant episode in the history of feminism, in a given place in the world.

In order to illustrate an article dedicated to the Mexican feminist Elena Arizmendi, we would like to reproduce one of the pictures below:

Could you please tell me what your conditions are to reproduce these images and what credit I should write? You will find at the bottom of this email technical information regarding the book.

Also I wondered if you could help me as I would like to know where I could find the picture below (which I found on WikiCommons in a low-res format)?

I thank you in advance for your help and look forward to reading from you.

Very best wishes,

David Lestringant
